

The National Museum
Volunteers Bangkok
presents

@Homes

Celebrate the month of love with a workshop inspired by one of Siam's greatest love stories ever recorded: The Poetic Verses of the 'Kahp He' Tradition Admiring Savoury and Sweet dishes. Lovingly composed by King Rama II, this literary piece praises his beloved Principal Queen, Queen Sri Suriyendra: the mother of King Rama IV and the Second King of Siam (King Pinklao) for her exceptional culinary skills. For the February workshop, our @Homes team would like to invite you to join another cooking class where, not only will you'll be making Cho Muang, the purple Royal Flower Dumplings, and Bird-Shaped Dumplings by hand, you'll also indulge other dishes featured in the poem, as well as enjoy a private tour of a 200 year old Chinese House led by the owners. Join us and learn about how love made history.

Participants: 20
Time: 09:00-12:00
Date : 24th February 2026
Fees: 1,200 THB (NMV Members) 1,300 THB (Nonmembers)
Locations: My Grandparents' House Cafe
and the 200 Year Old Chinese House (Private Property)

Kindly register by sending us an email at AtHomesNMV@gmail.com